

Oriel Myrddin Gallery

Criw Celf

12 – 21 July

Criw Celf at Oriel Myrddin Gallery creates opportunities for young people from 9–14 years of age to work with professional artists and designers in a series of visual arts masterclasses. The exhibition in the main gallery space is a curated sample of the young people's work created throughout 2018.

 Criw Celf is an Arts Council of Wales funded pan-Wales project for gifted and talented young artists.

Haptic Tacit: In Search of the Vernacular

28 July – 13 October

Jane Cairns / David Gates
Grant Aston / Henry Pim
Kim Norton / Gail Mahon
Kimberley Chandler / Mark Cousins

In Search of the Vernacular uses the human scale of contemporary craft to provide a fresh perspective on aspects of vernacular architecture. Gallery-based contemporary craft including sculptural ceramics, installation and bespoke furniture.

Density and Stillness, 2017, Grant Aston
Photo: Michael Harvey

Makers Market

20 October – 29 December

We invite some of the best individual makers, designers and artists from Wales and across the UK to join us for our winter exhibition. Our 2018 Makers Market features beautifully crafted and carefully selected ceramics, textiles, clothing, wood and leather as well as small local food producers.

July–Dec 18

Oriel Myrddin Gallery, Church Lane, Carmarthen SA31 1LH
01267 222775 • orielmyrddingallery.co.uk
Monday–Saturday 10–5 • Admission is free