

Programme of Events

Saturday 24 August 2019 10am – 4:30pm

Equip your Kitchen Workshop Series

Weave an Irish Skib with West Wales Willows

Learn how to weave an Irish Skib basket, traditionally used to drain and serve potatoes. This flat, tray-like basket can also be used for bread and is perfect for beginners as well as those wishing to extend their knowledge. Age 16+, £45 per person - please book via Eventbrite

Land actions: A clay village and climate catastrophe

At Carmarthenshire County Museum, Abergwili SA31 2JG

Be part of an exciting event helping to create a miniature clay settlement in the grounds of Carmarthenshire County Museum in Abergwili with The Tywi Gateway Trust. Join us to explore 3D mapping, climate change, flooding and earth science.

Tuesday 20 and Wednesday 21 August 2019 11am – 4pm

Come and make a clay building to place on our 3D map of the Tywi valley.

Thursday 22 August 2019 11am – 1pm

Join us for a series of interventions where we will flood our clay settlement exploring the effects of differing sea level rises and flood events. All welcome, free, drop-in, no need to book

Tuesday 27 August 2019 11am – 3pm

Equip your Kitchen Workshop Series

Bees Wax Wraps and Bags with Louise Bird

Come and learn how to make beeswax wraps and sandwich bags with Carmarthen based textile artist Louise Bird. Age 8+, £5 per person, drop in, no need to book

Friday 30 August 12 – 7pm and Saturday 31 August 2019 10:30am – 7pm

The Big Cwtch Festival

Come and visit our stand to find out more about our Criw Celf programme and join textile artist Louise Bird for The Big Knit at The Big Cwtch. Free to festival goers

Thursday 19 September 2019 6 – 7:30pm

Oriel Myrddin Book Club: Deep Country by Neil Ansell

Alongside our exhibition Land Acts at Oriel Myrddin Gallery, we will be reading Deep Country: Five years in the Welsh hills by journalist Neil Ansell. The tale of five years spent living alone in a cottage on a remote Welsh hillside. Join us for a friendly and informal discussion, free, no need to book

Land Acts

Saturday 21 September 2019 9:30am – 12:30pm

Equip your Kitchen Workshop Series

Throw an Oven Proof Dish with Mill Rundle Pottery

At Mill Rundle Pottery, Dolwerdd, Drefach Felindre, SA44 5UG

In this morning workshop you will create a simple pie dish suitable for oven or table. Age 16+, £45 per person - please book via Eventbrite

Wednesday 25 September 2019 12 – 3pm

Food Share Harvest Lunch with Ella Gibbs

Calling all local producers, gardeners, land workers, you are invited to Oriel Myrddin Gallery for a Food Share Harvest Lunch as part of the Land Acts exhibition. Share tasters of what you forage, grow, make, and produce. Free, drop in, no need to book

Friday 11 October 2019 11am – 3pm

The Soil Assembly

Hosted by artist Owen Griffiths

A day of conversation with 'Land Acts' artists and guest speakers, exploring our relationship to land. Free but booking essential - please book via Eventbrite

Saturday 12 October 2019 2 – 4:30 pm

The Big Draw - Land Games with artist Seren Stacey

Join us for the Big Draw with artist Seren Stacey exploring how creativity can promote our understanding of land and resources as well as our health and wellbeing. Create a collaborative drawn landscape through sharing and swapping, joining forces or remaining independent.

£3 per person, drop in, no need to book

27 July – 12 October 2018

Featured Maker: Annabet Wyndham

Our Featured Maker during July – October 2019 is Brighton based jeweller Annabet Wyndham. Primarily using silver and vitreous enamel, she also uses aeroply plywood which is shaped and painted. Her most recent work is inspired by still life paintings especially those of modernist painter William Scott.

27 July – 12 October 2018

Back Wall Series: Louise Young

Louise Young is the latest in our series of Welsh artists featured as part of our Back Wall Series in the gallery shop. Since the beginning of 2018 Louise has been Visiting -Artist at FernVorrow biodynamic farm in the Black Mountains. The resulting collection of 13 watercolour paintings, some of which are shown here, represent a calendar year of growth dyfiant.